Archangels in Heaven

Archangels in Heaven

Archangel Gabriel

ARCHANGEL GABRIEL

Have faith. You are watched over and protected. I am here for you.

Gabriel is the archangel of revelation, illuminating your darkness and guiding those who traverse the realms of shadow. Call upon Archangel Gabriel to help you uncover the sacred mysteries. As a divine messenger for God, the archangel can be called upon to assist with receiving prophecy, though typically, one communes directly with God, seeks out God's revelations, and then God sends Gabriel. Thus, at the behest of God, Gabriel reveals. He shows you the way. Archangel Gabriel protects you against all forms of darkness. His symbol is the illuminated lantern. He is associated with the metaphysical element Earth.

Archangel Michael

ARCHANGEL MICHAEL

Have faith. You are watched over and protected. I am here for you.

Archangel Michael is the archangel commander of God's forces. He is a warrior. He fights against heresies. It is Michael who defeated Satan. Seek out Archangel Michael to help you navigate the shadow, to help you defeat your own demons. Michael's symbol is the spear. "Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God." Ephesians 6:17. Pray to and invoke Michael to bring you strength, conviction, courage, and manifest his fearlessness. Archangel Michael is associated with the metaphysical element Air. Commune with Michael through the smoke of incense, particularly frankincense or myrrh.

Archangel Raphael

ARCHANGEL RAPHAEL

Have faith. You are watched over and protected. I am here for you.

Archangel Raphael is the archangel of the healing arts and the sacred arts. His symbol is an alabaster jar filled with healing oil. Prayers and invocations to Raphael bring divine protection for you. Call upon Archangel Raphael for healing, recovery, longevity, physical, emotional, and spiritual health. He is also the patron of those in the health and healing professions, of travelers, and of those seeking a harmonious marriage. Archangel Raphael is associated with the metaphysical element Water, and can also be petitioned to assist in ritual purifications by water.

Archangel Uriel

ARCHANGEL URIEL

Have faith. You are watched over and protected. I am here for you.

Archangel Uriel, “the Light of God,” is the archangel of glory, patron of the arts, and bringer of salvation. Uriel’s symbol is both the flame and papyrus scroll, representing wisdom and knowledge. Uriel is a luminary and in turn, an angel who oversees luminaries and thought leaders here on earth. Powerful and a force to be reckoned with, Archangel Uriel is associated with a flaming sword, and associated with thunder and lightning. As a regent of the sun, Uriel is linked to the metaphysical element Fire. Commune with Archangel Uriel through the Sacred Flame.

Amithaba Buddha

MANTRA TO INVOKE THE COMPASSIONATE BUDDHA

Namo Amitofuo

Historically regarded by Chinese Taoist practitioners as the mantra to cultivate high magic and personal power, the mantra to Amithaba (Amitofuo) is used for protection, psychic defense, and amplification of your personal Qi energy or life force for improved inner strength. Repetitions of “Namo Amitofuo” are believed to attune you closer to the vibrational frequency of Divinity and to facilitate spiritual ascension.

Amitofuo is the celestial Buddha in Mahayana Buddhism who gained Buddhahood karmically through good deeds. Prior to Buddhahood, he was a bodhisattva from another universe, Dharma Kara. After Buddhahood, Amitofuo created a heavenly realm called the Pure Land in the West. Attunement with Amitofuo through recitation of the Namo Amitofuo mantra gains entry into the Pure Land.

Bei Di

UNDER THE PROTECTION AND GUIDANCE OF BEI DI, GOD OF THE NORTH

You are connected to me and I will guide you.
I answer through omens that I place in your path.

Bei Di, the God of the North, associated with the animal totems the black tortoise and the snake, is a dark warrior god characterized as powerful, formidable, and courageous. He is a master of exorcisms and defeating demons. The tortoise and snake spirits he controls are said to have been demons that were ravaging earth. Bei Di came down from heaven, defeated the demons and brought them under his control. They now do his bidding for good and to help people who call upon the God of the North for help. Bei Di is venerated as a powerful god of magic and often called upon to assist with weather magic, exorcisms, protection during summonings and conjurings, banishments, and other forms of high magic.

Elemental: Air

Activating Air and Fortifying the Personal Energetic Field with Air

Air is the metaphysical force that manifests the personal dynamic power of sovereignty—the power to protect yourself from harm and the power to punish those who harm you. Cultivate a stronger fountainhead of dynamic Air power inside of you to establish personal sovereignty and to wield power over others so they don't have power over you.

Empress Mother of the West

Empress Mother of the West: The Dark Goddess

*You are connected to me and I will guide you.
I answer through omens that I place in your path.*

The earliest record of the Empress Mother dates back to 1500 BC. She is associated with magic and exemplifies the divine feminine, but unlike the common Western depictions of the “divine feminine” as soft, nurturing, or demure, the Empress Mother is a fearsome dark goddess. She can be called upon to bring chaos and destruction to your enemies. She is the goddess of longevity, immortality, and shamanism. Female shamans and those who practice witchcraft often dedicate themselves to her and call upon the Empress Mother as their patron deity. She endows those who call upon her with the ability to see and travel beyond the veil, to wield the powers of both creation and destruction, and to achieve immortality. The Empress Mother is associated with the autumnal equinox and the planet Venus. Her animal spirit is the white tiger and black three-legged crow.

Fu Talisman for Business and Financial Gains

福

日日有見財

Rì Rì Yǒu Jiàn Cái

“Every day, encounter riches.”

蝠子天來

Fú Zǐ Tiān Lái

“A bat arrives from heaven”
(Blessings of fortune and prosperity)

生意興隆

Shēng Yì Qīng Lóng

“May business flourish”

For those seeking to accrue blessings of prosperity, financial gains, and success for their businesses and commercial ventures in 2018, the above Fu talisman inscribed into the day planner I carry with me every day has always brought me good luck. Inscribing the sigil into your book empowers the book and all that you do or craft with the book to usher in riches, a flourishing business, and the success you seek to manifest. Three classic Chinese mantras are provided as well, with pronunciation and translations. Integrating the mantras into your daily ritual work will help with money manifestation.

Grand Duke of the East

Grand Duke of the East

The Grand Duke of the East oversees the registry of Immortals. He is also in charge of Man in the trinity of Heaven, Earth, and Man, and is thus connected to all human activity, in particular the rise and fall of human civilizations. In ancient Chinese Taoist mythology, the Grand Duke of the East was originally a goddess, or in female form, who created mankind. Once the goddess created mankind and mothered us, our creator then transformed into a male form to become venerated as a god, and the father of mankind. He then allied with the Empress Mother of the West, a powerful dark goddess, and together they reigned the celestial kingdom.

The Grand Duke of the East is the knower of all names in all realms, so if you seek to know the name of an entity, whether that entity is another human, living or dead, a celestial entity, or a demon, call upon the Grand Duke to give you that name. He is also associated with ancestor worship and past lives. Call upon the Grand Duke to connect with ancestors or to connect with your memories of past lives. Finally, the Grand Duke is connected to ascended masters. When invoked, he can help you connect with your ancestors. The god is associated with the spring equinox, and brings wealth, prosperity, and material gains. His symbol is the azure dragon and is associated with dragons.

Ganesha

MANTRA TO INVOKE GANESHA FOR
REMOVING OBSTACLES BLOCKING SUCCESS

Om Gum Gana Pata Yei Namaha

Ganesha (Ganapati) is an inner deity who can be invoked to clarify our karma and remove the obstacles that stand between us and our highest goals. Patron deity of scribes, writers, intellectuals, scholars, and bankers. Kartika wielded by Ganesha cuts away that which binds us. The mantra brings wealth, abundance, and prosperity. Invoke Ganesha to help remove obstacles and clear your path toward success and achievement. He will use his kartika to cut bondages that cause your suffering and destroy all your hardships.

Glory and Greatness Talisman

GLORY & GREATNESS TALISMAN TO ENSURE SUCCESS

When you seek to add energetic support to an endeavor to ensure success, greatness, or victory, copy the above Fu talisman by hand onto a piece of paper through the course of ritual work (i.e., first establish your sacred space and connect yourself to that greater collective pool of universal energy), then roll it up into a scroll, and tie with red string. The scroll has the effect of a potent energetic battery that “charges” your personal environment with the energy you’ve programmed into it. Near the top of the sigil design, you’ll see three connected circles representing the sacred trinity. To the left is the glyph for moon. To the right is the glyph for the sun. Below is the oracle bone script for Divinity. Within the bell are the Chinese oracle bone script characters for “victory,” “wealth and great riches,” “fortitude and strength,” and “glory.” In my personal practice, I’ll light incense, a candle, envision a beam of light from the crown of my head connecting upward, and then white light energy descending down from the connection I sent up, traveling down through my arm, out my fingertips, and into the sigil I’m drawing, empowering it into the talisman. I visualize my intention materializing and coming into being. One reliable way to determine whether your craft was effective is through emotion: it should be an emotionally-charged experience and leave you a touch emotionally exhausted.

Health and Wellness Talisman

THE SUTRA OF THE MEDICINE BUDDHA

南無消災延壽藥師佛

Ná mó xiāo zāi yán shòu yào shī fó.

Om bhaishajye bhaishajye maha—
bhaishajya samudgate svaha.

“I invoke the venerable Medicine Buddha to cure
All misfortune and to prolong health and wellness.”

Set a gemstone or pendant upon the Longevity Seal above, hover your dominant hand over the object, and visualize your crown chakra illuminated and activated. Petition the Medicine Buddha with the foregoing sutra recitation. A full moon ritual every lunar cycle for one year petitioning the Medicine Buddha while enchanting your object will infuse it with potent healing powers and bring you the good auspices of health and wellness.

Koi Fish (Secular; Non-Denominational)

An old Chinese tale goes like this: a koi fish dreamt of being a dragon. All the other animals mocked him for his quixotic fantasies. Every day the koi fish prayed to the heavens to become a dragon. One day heaven answered his prayer. The Jade Emperor told the fish that if he could swim up a certain formidable waterfall, then the heavens would grant the koi his wish. That condition, though, seemed impossible to achieve. Yet every day, tirelessly and with great tenacity, the little fish worked hard at scaling that waterfall. The other animals mocked him even harder now. Nonetheless, the fish persisted. Then one day, against all odds, the koi fish made it up the waterfall to the top. Honoring the promise, the Jade Emperor transformed the koi fish into a celestial dragon.

Likewise, when you are willing to work against all odds toward your dreams, against what you thought was your limit and nature, the gods will honor you for your tenacity and transform your greatest fantasies, no matter how quixotic, into reality.

Kuan Yin

MANTRA TO INVOKE KUAN YIN

Namo Kuan Shi Ying Pusa

Namo Avalokiteshvaraya

Kuan Yin is the bodhisattva of compassion. She appears to those who invoke her for mercy or help, irrespective of religious beliefs. She appears unconditionally for all whose hearts are sincere and alleviates them of their pain. Rather than adhere to karmic justice, Kuan Yin shows mercy and through mercy, seeks to move people's hearts toward compassion. Thus, she bestows blessings upon you, no matter your karma, in the hopes that you will then in turn bless others, exercise greater compassion, and spread the word of unconditional love. To invoke Kuan Yin, recite her mantra. The one to the left is in Mandarin Chinese; the one to the right is in Pali.

Lady of the Ninth Heaven

The Lady of the Ninth Heaven is likened more to an archangel than a deity. She is associated with the phoenix and kingfisher feathers, a master of military strategy and magic, and was venerated by the Yellow Emperor, the first emperor of China, who knelt before her. She taught the Yellow Emperor the art of war and the art of spell-casting so that he might defeat his enemies. Her symbols are the sword and the gourd of healing. Today she is venerated as a goddess of high magic and intellectual prowess. In personal ritual, focus on her image above to connect to her. Call upon her for support in forms of combat and in magical practice.

PETITIONING AND ATTUNING TO THE LADY OF THE NINTH HEAVEN

I call upon Jiu Tian Shwen Nu, the Lady of the Ninth Heaven, disciple of the Empress Mother of the West, to lend me the spirit and power of your sword, so that I may be strong, fearless, indomitable, to cut through all obstacles, and lend me the spirit and power of your gourd, so that I may heal those who are wounded and repair that which is broken. Na mo Jiu Tian Shwen Nu, send to me the power to change that which I seek to change.

Marici

THE MANTRA OF MARICI

Om Marici Svaha

(om mah-lee-chee suh-vah-ha)

Marici (Marishiten or Dou Mu) is a bodhisattva and goddess of the Light and the sun, associated with the chariot and the Big Dipper. She is the heavenly healer, called upon to alleviate ill fates and misfortune. Marici is a protection deva, invoked to shield, guard, and protect, often venerated by the warrior class. She is the bodhisattva invoked for self-mastery and for those seeking to cultivate supernatural powers. She is also called upon for protection and guidance while traversing the netherworlds. Her many faces symbolize her omniscient presence. In each of her eight arms she wields a weapon of war or magical tool. Marici is associated with the colors red and gold, and this particular expression of a pan-Asian solar goddess is the one depicted by Indian, Hindu, Chinese, Taiwanese, esoteric Buddhist, and Taoist cultures.

Om Mani Padme Hom

ॐ ॥ ॐ ॥ ॐ ॥

THE MANTRA OF AVALOKITESHVARA

Om Mani Padme Hom

Avalokiteshvara, or Kuan Yin, is the manifestation of mercy and compassion consciousness. Green and White Tara were born from the tears of Avalokiteshvara. The mantra of Avalokiteshvara, or the mantra of Kuan Yin, is used to cultivate compassion consciousness. For psychic and spiritual purification to detoxify, clear, ground, and shield, recite the mantra of Kuan Yin 108 times in a monthly full moon ritual. The mantra can also be used to consecrate water. The practitioner places the giving hand into the water, submerged, recites the mantra 1,188 times (or 11 rounds of the 108 mala prayer beads), and the water becomes consecrated into Holy Water. Per many sects of esoteric Buddhism and Taoist magical traditions, the mantra of Avalokiteshvara is the go-to tried-and-true method for shielding, psychic protection, and magical defense. Most Holy Water is also consecrated through the mantra of Avalokiteshvara.

Qi Energy Crystal Charging Grid

QI (LIFE ENERGY) CHARGING GRID

From the top medallion clockwise, the glyphs are derived from Chinese oracle bone script for the Wu Xing or five phases: Fire, Earth, Metal, Metal, Water, Earth, Wood, and Wood. The inner circle of Ba Gua trigrams are the Later Heaven Ba Gua. The center point is the fountainhead of Qi energy. Place jewelry, a pocket stone, or charm at the center medallion. Along the other medallions, arrange stones as you would a crystal grid. Leave overnight during a moon phase and moon sign that corresponds with the intention. Doing so empowers the jewelry, pocket stone, or charm with stronger life force as a metaphysical supplement for success.

Healing. Use in spell-crafting to improve physical health or facilitate healing. Heals emotions and spirit first, at the root, to then foster physical healing.

Release and Unravel. Use to cut cords, to detach from something you were otherwise tethered to. Use to unravel a confusing situation. Untie, detach, sever, release, cut away from.

Stabilize. Reign in. When extenuating conditions and surrounding energies are volatile, use this sigil in spell-crafting to stabilize the situation, slow it down, bring steadiness.

Pulchritude. Use to enhance beauty, attraction, social popularity, and charisma. Use to raise one's public image or reputation.

Affinity. Use in love spells, to attract healthy romance, and to encounter that one person who is most compatible.

Serenity. Use to restore balance, in particular work-life balance. Use to cultivate peace of mind. For calming anxiety and nervousness.

Binding. Create an obstacle or impasse to thwart an opponent by writing the opponent's name above the top line of the sigil. Roll into a scroll, bind with twine, and either toss the scroll into flames to burn or bury it deep into the ground, placing a rock atop the burial.

To Cause Decay. Use to expedite the decay or degeneration of a matter. Can be used to spoil or infect with a poison or metaphysical virus. Use the sigil with sympathetic spell-crafting to further give power to that spell. Can be used in a non-harm manner, to bring an end to what no longer serves.

To Devour, Bite Through. Invoke the spirit of a predatory animal, such as a wolf, tiger, lion, hawk, or even dragon and craft a specific intent spell integrating the sigil to embody the predator, not the prey. Use as a last resort when all remedial measures have failed. Use to defeat an enemy.

Seal of Lao Tzu

THE SEAL OF LAO TZU

The Seal of Lao Tzu, also known as the Lao Tzu talisman, is a sigil found in several medieval Chinese Taoists magical texts (and further cited in my book The Tao of Craft) used by fortune tellers, mediums, and psychics to help strengthen their intuitive powers. In Taoism, Lao Tzu is immortalized and called upon as an ascended master to help current mortal practitioners of craft. The Seal of Lao Tzu is used to amplify your psychic and mediumship abilities and to heighten the accuracy of your divinatory readings. When in need of a psychic boost or reboot, place your receiving hand over the seal printed on the page, close your eyes, and feel your crown chakra open. Envision a beam of white light from above descend down and connect to your crown chakra, stream down through your body, down your arm, out your hand and into the seal on the page, illuminating the seal. Feel its warmth beneath your palm. Visualize the illuminated seal now empowered to reflect energy back into you and feel the surge from the seal entering your palm, up your arm, toward your third eye chakra, warming and stimulating your third eye. When you feel rejuvenated, remove your hand and close the white light beam of connection. The exercise will help rejuvenate your psychic energy.

Travel Protection Talisman

一路平安

Yī Lù Píng Ān

Safe journeys in all travels.

A travel protection talisman inscribed into your book so that where this book goes, a shield of protection for safe journeying will accompany you. Make reproductions of the talisman to incorporate into spell-crafting for protection over your vehicles or to tuck into your luggage when you travel.

Vajrayogini

ॐ वज्रयोगिनी ह्रूं फट् स्वाहा

THE VAJRAYOGINI MANTRA OF THE GREAT MOTHER

Om Vajrayogini Hum Phat Svaha

In esoteric Buddhist practice, invoking Vajrayogini, the Great Mother, is considered one of the most powerful and secretive occult mantra practices. Routine cultivation with the Vajrayogini mantra enhances magical and psychic power. Vajrayogini is a female ascended master depicted with a third eye, wielding weapons in preparation for spiritual warfare, and is considered a solitary heroine. She is known as the sky dancer. She represents the consciousness of the magi, the shaman, the sorceress—a fierce creator and destroyer. To cultivate Vajrayogini consciousness, visualize a dark goddess energy in maiden form dancing within a four-gate mandala and maintain that visualization through 108 recitations of the Vajrayogini mantra. Visualize red luminescence and vitality stimulating all of your chakras in that red auric field. Routine Vajrayogini cultivation strengthens personal vitality, physical health, and both psychic and shamanic abilities. It enables a practitioner to better control one's innate powers and to help activate latent talents. Vajrayogini is associated with solar eclipses.

Zhu Rong

Zhu Rong: Keeper of the Sacred Southern Fire

Embody the warrior spirit.

Focus on a defined purpose. Be strong and fearless.

You are connected to me and I will guide you by the light of the Sacred Fire.

I answer through omens that I place in your path.

The directional deity of the south who guards the sacred fire has been represented as both male and female. Here she is represented as a goddess, who began life as a woman warrior and then was later immortalized. Zhu Rong is called upon for success in combative situations, conquests, to ensure victory, attain glory, achieve gains in status, and attaining honors. Associated with the summer solstice and the planet Mars, she appears to those attuned to the summer season or Mars, and to those who possess strength of character, courage, and fearlessness.
